2. PHYSIOTHERAPY SERVICES DURING THE EVENT

The organizers have arranged (with kind assistance of Mr. Stefano Rocca) for a Physiotherapist to be at the Rally Hotel every night for those drivers who might like to use these services after a tough day in Africa.

Mr Daniele Aramini graduated at Italian University for Physical Education in 1982 with specialization in sport and his expertise is in muscles physiotherapy.

A brief CV of his experience is:

- employed by the Cuneo General Hospital (Italy) for rehabilitation therapy from 1982 to 1984 from 1984 to 1986 health and rehabilitating therapies in a private medical centre.
- from 1986 to 1988 studied at Italian University for rehabilitation and sport related trainings.
- from 1988 to 2000 worked in Formula One for Benetton (first Michael Schumacher 88-92, second Jean Alesi 92/95), Sauber 1995-1997 (again Jean Alesi and then Nick Heidfeld), Alain Prost 1997-1999 (Jean Alesi and Jarno Trulli)
- Max Biaggi (motor bikes) from 1999 to 2000
- from 2000 onward moved to Malindi Kenya where he is presently working as an independent professional.

He presently is a resident of Kenya working as therapist of rehabilitation in muscles physiotherapy.

His contacts are mobile phone is +254-733-420826 or home +254-42-2131401 or 020-2070700 for any competitor to call and book his services in advance or on the event.

Mr Daniele Aramini (Mastero as he is known by friends) has a portable massage table and will have this set up in his room at the Rally Hotel and his cost is Kshs 4500 (US$ 60) per therapy and each session is about 40 minutes.

He has also said he can work with a driver before the event for physical training if required.

Please contact him and book directly for his services. He can see you on the day subject to being free of booking.

Best regards,

Surinder Thatthi
